Benedictions of the Satellites

Volume Five in the Satellites Chronicles

Curated by Kester of Harlan

This book is a private publication that exists only for the pleasure of the Chalk Man Satellites. All other uses are null & void.

In the 70's & 80's, a group of fun people created the group pseudonym Kester of Harlan to share words. The name is resurrected here to indicate the contributions and words of many, though curated by a committee of one. Released Sunday 26 July 2025 at the 52nd Pennsic War at Cooper's Lake.

This book is intended to embrace the cascade effect of writing/reading created by the great Québécoise writer Jack Kerouac when he taped sheets of paper together so he could type On the Road in its original 120 foot-long scroll format; as if it were all in one breath. As such, this book is best enjoyed by pouring the profanity like a waterfall before your eyes and letting it carry you along.

that it was an unofficial event so we didn't have to use medieval names.
And I thought to myself,
"That is exactly the sort of shit John hates: requiring medieval names
at an unofficial event."

medieval names is exactly
